Scholarship Application

The application has three sections. The acceptable format is a Microsoft Word document or a pdf saved and submitted with the file names listed by each section. All three sections must be completed and submitted for eligibility. The Foundation is not responsible for applications submitted in the incorrect file names and formats.

- 1) The application (last name first name application i.e. Doe John Application)
 - Incomplete or incorrect application information and documentation will make the application ineligible.

- 2) Outline of extracurricular activities, community service, and volunteer work (last name first name activities i.e. Doe John Activities). Type your name on the document.
- 3) Essay (last name first name Essay i.e. Doe John Essay). This is a vital part of the application process. This is where you tell the Foundation why they should select you for a scholarship.
 - Limited to two pages, line spacing of at least 1.5
 - Use spell check. Presentation counts.
 - Type your name on the top of the essay.
 - Suggested topics.
 - ✓ What are your educational/academic goals?
 - ✓ Why have you chosen this field of study?
 - ✓ What are your future career plans?
 - ✓ How do you plan to use your studies to achieve your future career plans?
 - ✓ What person or life-changing experience has made you who you are today?
 - ✓ Which community service projects are you most proud of and why?

Application Process Timeline

- Application submittal deadline is midnight March 31, 2020.
- Applicant will be notified by email if selected as a finalist or not selected by no later than April 30, 2020.
